Contract Risk & Compliance Analysis Report

Contract Clause

Confidentiality: Each Party agrees to keep confidential all non-public information, documents, trade secrets, business strategies, customer data, financial information, and other proprietary materials disclosed by the other Party ("Confidential Information"). The receiving Party shall use such Confidential Information solely for the purpose of performing its obligations under this Agreement and shall not disclose it to any third party without the prior written consent of the disclosing Party, except where disclosure is required by law. These confidentiality obligations shall survive the termination or expiration of this Agreement for a period of five (5) years.

LegalBERT Risk Signal

Prediction: Medium

Confidence: 99.83%

Class Scores

Baseline: 0.03%

Low: 0.01%

Medium: 99.83%

High: 0.13%

Retrieved Indian Law

Section 231

Rights of parties to a contract made by agent not disclosed

Similarity Score: 0.3870

Section 143

Guarantee obtained by concealment invalid

Similarity Score: 0.3869

Section 19

Voidability of agreements without free consent

Similarity Score: 0.3866

Section 28

Agreements in restraint of legal proceedings, void

Similarity Score: 0.3805

Section 138

Release of one co-surety does not discharge others

Similarity Score: 0.3708

Grounded Local LLM Analysis

Assessed Risk: Medium

Agreement with ML: YES

Evidence Sufficient: YES

Human Review Required: YES

Summary

The clause addresses confidentiality obligations, which are generally considered low-risk under Indian law.

Risk Reasoning

The clause sets forth clear confidentiality requirements and specifies the duration of protection. It does not involve any specialized relationships such as principal-agent, agency, criminal conduct, guarantee, bailment, pledge, or other specialized legal contexts that would make it relevant to statutory provisions.

Contractual Concern

Confidentiality obligations

Suggested Mitigation

Ensure that the confidentiality agreement is properly drafted and communicated.

Disclaimer

This report is generated automatically using a hybrid AI pipeline combining LegalBERT, Retrieval-Augmented Generation (RAG), and a local Large Language Model. It is intended for decision support only and does not constitute legal advice.